

APPOINTMENT OF LOCAL SCHOOL DIRECTORS

Ninety (90) days after a local school district director position has been vacant, the ESD 113 Board of Directors will receive a notice of the vacancy and take action in a timely manner to fill the vacant position.

A slate of candidates shall be requested by the ESD 113 Board of Directors from the local school district board of directors. Any candidates submitted by the local school board members will be considered for appointment. In addition the ESD 113 Board of Directors may solicit and consider additional candidates as it may find to be appropriate.

The ESD 113 Board of Directors shall select the new local school district board member from a pool of qualified candidates by majority vote. The appointment shall be effective only until the next odd-year local school district election.
